

The Value of O*NET: Making WIA Work

Seminar Description

Target Audience: Implementers and Influencers of WIA, Economic Development Community and Vendor Community

Prerequisites: None

Room Setup: VGA Computer Projector and Screen.

Program Length: 1.5 hours

Maximum Class Size: None

Seminar Overview: This seminar is designed to give the participant a general understanding of O*NET, demonstrate how O*NET can impact their job, and how O*NET is an integral piece of WIA implementation strategies.

Learning Objectives

At the completion of this seminar the participants will be able to:

- Define O*NET (as described by new strategic positioning)
- Describe O*NET to others
- Relate the need for occupational information to be successful in their job
- Relate the value, features, advantages and benefits of using O*NET
- Understand the relationship between O*NET and other systems
- Identify opportunities in their workplace where O*NET can be applied
- Understand how O*NET can help meet WIA implementation criteria
- Identify those who should participate in O*NET Quick Start
- Locate important resources for additional information

Content Outline

Module One (5 min.)

- Welcome and Introductions
- Review Course Objectives

Module Two (45 min.)

- O*NET –“More than a Database”
Product description
- Review Needs Analysis
WIA Implementation, One Stop Customer Interactions, and ICESA Survey Findings
- Features and Benefits
- Activity: Demonstrate how O*NET brings value to your job

Module Three (20 min.)

- Other applications with O*NET inside
- Using O*NET to enhance other systems

Module Four (20 min.)

- Activity: Identify O*NET applications to your job
- Activity: Next steps – Integrating O*NET in my work environment
- Frequently Asked Questions
- Sources and Resources
- Session Evaluations